

Computing at School (CAS) Quality Review Panel

The BCS Academy of Computing has created a Quality Review Panel to enhance the activities of CAS in its provision of teaching and learning resources. We were invited to join the small panel of volunteers who identify and coordinate quality review activities.

This gives us a valuable opportunity to review new high quality computing resources as they are developed and to advocate for SEND within this context.