Dear Parent/Carer,

Your child has chosen "Travel Club" this term as their enrichment activity. The Travel Club run a series of different trips in the local area. This involves your child experiencing train travel with the support of staff, learning how travel on public transport and cross the roads safely, and with confidence.

Each week the students will experience a different train journey or outing related to travel.

These trips will take place in the afternoons from Tuesday 13th January until Tuesday 24th March, the schedule for travel club is as follows:

- Tuesday 13th January – a walk to the Railway Bridge, Burgess Hill.
- Tuesday 20th January - a walk to Burgess Hill town centre, learning how to cross the roads safely and with confidence.
- Tuesday 27th January - a train journey to Haywards Heath station from Burgess Hill station (walking to and from Burgess Hill station).
- Tuesday 10th February – a train journey to Three Bridges station from Burgess Hill station (walking to and from Burgess Hill station).
- Tuesday 24th February - a walk to the Railway Bridge, Burgess Hill.
- Tuesday 03rd March - a walk to Burgess Hill town centre to visit different bus stops in the town.
- Tuesday 10th March - a train journey to Brighton station from Burgess Hill station (walking to and from Burgess Hill train station)
- Tuesday 17th March - a walk to Burgess Hill town centre, learning how to cross the roads safely and with confidence.
- Tuesday 24th March - a train journey to Gatwick station from Burgess Hill station (walking to and from Burgess Hill train station)

On Tuesdays it is therefore necessary for pupils to wear sensible shoes for walking and bring a coat, water bottle and a snack if they wish.

Yours sincerely,

Lisa Woolley
