Dear Families

Rob Alderman, class teacher, will be leaving Woodlands Meed at Easter to undertake a new role at his new school. We wish him every success.

Some of you may remember Emma Holkham, who previously worked at Woodlands Meed. She is returning as Emma Willett and will be job sharing the class with Freya Jones.

Freya will be with the class on Mondays and Tuesdays.

Emma will be with the class on Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays.

Freya is currently on maternity leave until June, so Yvette Martin, our very experienced HLTA, will lead the class in the interim.

Emma and Freya are very experienced teachers who have worked at Woodlands Meed and in special education for many years. They are both looking forward to taking over class 4RA for the remainder of the academic year and continuing to build on the fantastic progress the pupils have made with Rob.
