17th April 2026

Dear Parent/Carer,

Your child has chosen "Exploring the Outdoors" for the summer term as their enrichment activity. The Exploring the Outdoors group run a series of different trips in the local area. The purpose of these visits is for the pupils to explore the local area, get exercise outdoors and help with mental wellbeing.

These visits will take place on Tuesday afternoons between Tuesday 21st April and Tuesday 14th July, the schedule is as follows:

- Tuesday 21st April – a walk to local park
- Tuesday 28th April - a trip to Jack & Jill Windmills, Clayton (travelling to and from the windmills via minibus)
- Tuesday 05th May – a trip to Bedelands Nature Reserve, Burgess Hill (travelling to and from the nature reserve by minibus)
- Tuesday 12th May – a trip to Nymans National Trust, Handcross (travelling to and from Nymans by minibus)
- Tuesday 09th June – a walk to local park
- Tuesday 16th June - a trip to Jack & Jill Windmills, Clayton (travelling to and from the windmills via minibus)
- Tuesday 07th July - a trip to Bedelands Nature Reserve, Burgess Hill (travelling to and from the nature reserve by minibus)
- Tuesday 14th July - a trip to Nymans National Trust, Handcross (travelling to and from Nymans by minibus)

On Tuesdays it is therefore necessary for pupils to wear sensible shoes for walking and bring a coat, water bottle and a snack if they wish.

Yours sincerely,

Carla Reed
