Dear Parent/Carer,

Your child has chosen "Travel Club" this term as their enrichment activity. The Travel Club run a series of different trips in the local area. This involves your child experiencing train / bus travel with the support of staff, learning how travel on public transport and crossroads safely, and with confidence.

Each week the students will experience a different train / bus journey or outing related to travel.

These trips will take place in the afternoons from Tuesday 22nd September until Tuesday 01st December, the schedule for travel club is as follows:

- Tuesday 22nd September – a walk to the Railway Bridge, Burgess Hill
- Tuesday 29th September - a round-trip bus journey around Burgess Hill (walking to and from the bus stop)
- Tuesday 06th October - to conduct a local travel survey in Burgess Hill Town Centre (walking to and from the town centre)
- Tuesday 13th October – a train journey to Haywards Heath station from Burgess Hill station (walking to and from Burgess Hill station)
- Tuesday 20th October - a walk to the Railway Bridge, Burgess Hill
- Tuesday 10th November - a train journey to Brighton station from Burgess Hill station (walking to and from Burgess Hill station)
- Tuesday 17th November - a round-trip bus journey around Burgess Hill (walking to and from the bus stop)
- Tuesday 24th November - to conduct a local travel survey in Burgess Hill Town Centre (walking to and from the town centre)
- Tuesday 01st December - a train journey to Gatwick station from Burgess Hill station (walking to and from Burgess Hill station)

On Tuesdays it is therefore necessary for pupils to wear sensible shoes for walking and bring a coat, water bottle and a snack if they wish.

Yours sincerely,

Ellie Lockyear
